Helpful Hints

- A student's progress depends on regular class attendance.
- The reception room must be void of loud conversation or noise so that there is no distraction to classes in session.
- Street clothing must not be left in the reception room. There are hangers and shelves downstairs by the restrooms.
- All apparel, especially shoes, should be labeled with the student's name.

Be proud that your child is participating in one of the greatest art forms of them all - the art of dance.
